SYLLABUS — TOPIC OUTLINE

1. Public Health and Healthcare Delivery System

- Levels of healthcare: primary, secondary and tertiary
- Public health: concept, goals and principles
- Primary healthcare and its components
- Village-level and community healthcare services
- Anganwadi centres, sub-centres, primary health centres and health centres
- Functions of healthcare personnel and health institutions

2. Telemedicine and Healthcare Services

- Telehealth and telemedicine
- Telemedicine practice, prescribing and patient consultation
- Appointment scheduling and teleconsultation services
- Privacy, confidentiality and patient consent
- Patient identification, registration and documentation

3. Human Anatomy and Physiology

- Anatomical terminology, body movements and directional terms
- Cells: structure, functions and classification
- Tissues: epithelial, connective, muscular and nervous
- Organs and organ systems
- Digestive system and related organs
- Liver, kidneys and excretory functions

4. Infection Prevention and Control

- Importance of infection control
- Methods to prevent and control infection
- Immunisation and vaccination
- Hand hygiene and hand-washing procedure
- Personal protective equipment and standard precautions

5. First Aid and Basic Life Support

- First aid principles and emergency response
- First aid procedures and assessment
- Basic life support (BLS)
- Adult cardiac arrest and cardiopulmonary resuscitation
- BLS components for adults, children and infants

6. Laboratory Procedures and Specimen Handling

- Basic laboratory procedures and safety
- Specimen collection and handling
- Blood collection and associated equipment
- Blood collection tubes and tube additives
- Anticoagulants: types and uses
- Instructions and precautions for sample collection

7. Biomedical Waste Management

- Introduction to biomedical waste
- Biomedical waste categories
- Segregation and colour-coded waste containers
- Handling and disposal of biomedical waste
- Treatment and disposal of biomedical waste